

Tinnitus: Genetic Susceptibility and Risk Modeling Registry

<https://bit.ly/35MABWD>

This contact form briefly describes the research study to see if you would like to provide your contact information to the research team. Providing contact information does not mean that you have to take part in this study; it only means that you are interested in learning more. If you are interested in learning more about this study or future studies that our lab is conducting, please share your contact details (e.g., e-mail ID, phone, and/or mailing address) to sign up in a research registry.

Please contact us at CSD-Audiogenomics@uiowa.edu with any questions
